John Doe

Senior Software Engineer

John has 8+ years of experience in software development, specializing in backend systems and microservices architecture. Proficient in Python, Java, and Docker, with expertise in building scalable cloud-based applications on AWS and Azure. Solid experience with continuous integration/continuous deployment (CI/CD) pipelines and automated testing frameworks. Adept at working in Agile environments and mentoring junior developers. Strong problem-solving skills with a focus on system optimization and performance improvements.